Involvement of Parents

How the school will involve the parents and families in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner, in the planning, reviewing and improvement of Title I programs, including involvement in decision making of how funds for Title I will be used? [Elementary Student Education Act 1116]

Our school strives to involve all parents in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs and our Parent & Family Engagement Plan. All parents are invited to attend meetings regarding the development of the required plan through flyers, school marquee, and REMIND. Parents are asked for their input on activities and trainings provided by the school. The school uses the notes from the group discussion to guide writing the plan.

Coordination and Integration with Other Federal Programs

How the school will coordinate and integrate parent and family activities that teach parents how to help their child(ren) at home? [Elementary Student Education Act Section 1116]

The school will provide reasonable support for parent involvement activities, including those which are requested by parents, by doing the following: School Leadership Team members will document requests by keeping records such as phone logs and copies of notes/emails. SAC/PTO meetings will provide an opportunity to ask parents to help decide on future parent involvement events, such as Title I nights. Parents will be notified as to how money is being spent and are invited to be in on the planning/organizing of all upcoming parent involvement events.

Count	Program	Coordination
1.	IDEA (ESE)	Provide information to parents about the resources available upon development of the student's IEP.
2.	Title III (ESOL)	The school and district ELL rep will provide literature and resources to parents at various evening events, and parent events.
3.	Title IX (Families in Transitions)	The Families In Transition (FIT) parents are provided taxis for registrations and parent conferences. Also, health and social services.
4.	Title II (Staff Development)	The professional development activities are facilitated and monitored by the resource teacher and District Professional Development department in relation to parent involvement.
5.	Title IV	The Student Support and Academic Enrichment (SSAE) program is designed to help schools provide a well-rounded education, improve safe & healthy school conditions for student learning, and improve the use of technology.

Annual Parent Meeting

A description of the specific steps the school will take to conduct the annual meeting to inform parents and families of participating children about the school's Title I Program.

For the Annual Parent meeting, multiple days and times are chosen to allow parents the opportunity to participate in the meeting at a time that fits their specific needs. A flier is sent home one week in advance and then again two days in advance to ensure that all parents are informed in a timely manner about the meeting. The custodian puts the meeting announcement on the marquee a week before to inform parents that come to the school campus. On the day of the meeting, the Title I coordinator will present the PowerPoint to the parents. Parents will be invited to ask questions during the presentation to ensure their understanding of the material. There will also be a discussion after the presentation.

Other Activities

How other activities the school will conduct to encourage and support parents and families in more meaningful engagement in the education of their child(ren)? [Every Student Education Act Section 1116]

The school is holding multiple events that will allow for parent involvement related directly to core subjects. The Family STEM night will allow parents and students an opportunity to learn about various math and science standards to enhance their knowledge. It will allow for parents to learn ways to incorporate games and activities utilizing math and science standards to reinforce academics. The Family Literacy Night will allow for application of literacy standards through hands-on activities. Parents will also learn strategies to encourage reading at home with their child.

Communication

How the school will provide timely information about the Title I programs?

At the beginning of the school year, Open House allows parents to visit the school and view its resources. Welcome Back Packets are provided to all students that includes a Title I booklet, District LEA Parent & Family Engagement Plan Summary and School Parent & Family Engagement Plan Summary. Every new student that is enrolled throughout the year is provided a copy of the packet upon registration. In addition, a Title I menu to access links to Title I is available through the school's website.

How the school will describe and explain the curriculum at the school, the forms of assessment used to measure student progress and the achievement levels students are expected to obtain?

Curriculum being used at the school is addressed at the school SAC and PTO meetings. At our Title I Annual Meeting, a PowerPoint is shared with the parents and families regarding information on the standards the child is expected to achieve, what the child is learning, how the children are being evaluated, and how to get in touch with the teacher.

How, if requested by parents, the school provides opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their child(ren)?

Any parent is able to request a parent/teacher conference in person or telephone. Parents may contact teachers via email. All teacher email addresses are available on our school website.

How the school will submit parents/families comments if the school-wide plan is not satisfactory to them? [Every Student Education Act Section 1116]

An electronic version of our Title I survey is provided to parents in order to get feedback on curriculum, testing, barriers, etc. Data is collected and results from the surveys are provided in the Spring and shared with parents. All parents are invited to discuss the results and ways to improve our school for the upcoming year.

Accessibility

A description of how the school will provide full opportunities for participation in parent/family engagement activities for all parents/families?

All activities that are provided by the school are in locations that are easily accessible to all parents and families. Families are notified a minimum of one week before any activities to allow time for scheduling. Activities are also placed on the marquee at the beginning of the month to allow more time for planning.

A description of how the school will share information related to school and parent/family programs, meetings, school reports, and other activities in an understandable, uniform format, and in languages that the parents/families can understand?

There is school wide parent communication with the use of handbooks, announcements, meetings, and activities which are provided in English and Spanish. Title I meetings are held in English and have Spanish translation to allow for all involved to participate. SAC meetings are held once a month to provide information about events that are happening, along with data reports on how the school is performing. Agendas are given to each student to help promote and support parent communication.

Discretionary (Optional)

Any activities that are not required, but will be paid for through Title I, Part A funding (for example, home visits, transportation for meetings, activities related to parent/family engagement. Etc.)

Barriers

A description of the barriers that hindered participation by parents during the previous school year from the school end of year survey?

The parents express that there were a couple of barriers that hinder them from participation in school activities. The largest barriers were stated to be: Work schedule and time constraints.

A description of the steps the school will take during the upcoming school year to overcome the barriers (with particular attention paid to parents/families who are disabled, have limited English proficiency, and parents/families of migratory children?)

We provide events on multiple different evenings and over a two-hour time period to allow for parents to be able to attend any time during that time period. We provide notification in advance to allow for parents to request Time off to be able to attend the events. Translation is provided as needed to increase participation.

Count	Barrier (Including the Specific Subgroup)	Steps the school will take to overcome
1.	Work Schedule	Advanced notice is given to allow parents time to adjust their work schedule to be able to attend. Events are held over a two-hour time frame to allow parents to be able to come at any time during the scheduled event.
2.	Time constraints	Multiple days and times are made available to allow for parents to schedule around the event.
3.	Child Care	Child appropriate activities are made available when parents need to be able to sit and focus on information. Most events are child friendly.
