Concert band has their MPA next week.

State Odyssey of the Mind in April

Battle of the Books April 21, 2023

Stock Take Meeting:

Math is progressing well in growth.

Reviewing standards from the fall and learning new things.

ELA- standards are trickier; need specific skills and knowledge, not just reading;
rhetorical appeals

Science- MOCK Science test was last week; will be planning next week with the county

Civics- MOCK test is next Thursday; after spring break, there will be a workshop and review building activity for our students.

Algebra- no MOCK assessment; they will just do their EOC

Biology- MOCK and review coming up to prepare for their EOC in May.

Panorama Survey- we will have another survey after Spring Break

Upcoming transfer for Mr. Weeden to go to Celebration K-8 School after Spring Break.

The fill in for our principal position will hopefully meet the needs that parents want.

Dr. Allen will be here to get feedback from parents and teachers to take back to the county office for the new hire process of a principal.

March 21, 2023, Board Meeting will be the time that the new principal will be announced.

Update for Literacy: 5:20-5:25pm

→ Crunch Time Plans: Reading Coach putting in information to help students prepare for testing.

→ FAST updates; short common assessments in ELA and Reading; Achieve 3000 for reading; FAST prep boot camp is coming up; AVID classes will be helping students review literacy; utilizing WIN time to help students with their reading.

→ Parent Question- need dates for the boot camp

The response was that boot camp will take place during school days with teachers, not after school or on weekends.

FAST Schedule: 5:26-5:38- Posted in the newsletter on our website

→ Parent asked about any incentives to help motivate students for testing; teacher posters that will drive the students to do well; think of other ways to help motivate students for test time.

Community Partners: 5:39pm

→ See Ms. Judy Lowell for our current community partners.
