School Advisory Council (SAC) Meetings

SAC meetings are:

- scheduled at times convenient to most members.
- required to have a quorum to be present before a vote (a majority of the membership of the council constitutes a quorum).
- announced publicly at least three working days in advance of the meeting.
- required to provide at least 3 days' advance notice in writing to all members of the advisory council of any matter that is scheduled to come before the council for a vote.
- required to replace any member who has two unexcused consecutive absences.
- open to the public, subject to the Florida Sunshine Law, which means the SAC's work, its plan, the information developed and used in writing the plan, and the meetings all must be open and accessible to anyone who is interested.
- recorded, and under the Florida Sunshine Law, must be available for inspection by any interested person.

Schools hoping to receive the "Five Star School Award" must hold a minimum of eight SAC meetings per school year. (For more Five Star School Award information go to: <http://www.fldoe.org/family/fivestar.asp>)

WHAT IS A SCHOOL ADVISORY COUNCIL?

Each advisory council is composed of the principal and an appropriately balanced number of teachers, education support employees, students (secondary level only), parents, and other business and community citizens who are representative of the ethnic, racial, and economic community served by the school (State Statute 1001.452).

The team of individuals from various segments of the community:

- focus efforts on increasing student achievement.
- assist in the preparation & evaluation of the School Improvement Plan.
- approve and ensure that the School Improvement Funds enhance school performance through the development and implementation of a School Improvement Plan.
- adopt & annually review bylaws establishing procedures, 1001.452, F.S.

NO EXPERIENCE NECESSARY

Principals, Teachers, Education Support Employees, Parents, Students (Secondary Level Only), Business and Community Members...

...may serve as a member of a School Advisory Council.

Council members representing teachers, education support employees, students, and parents shall be elected by their respective peer groups at the school in a fair and equitable manner.

(Florida Statute section 1001.452)

Each School Advisory Council shall assist in the preparation and evaluation of the School Improvement Plan required pursuant to Florida Statute section 1001.42(18).

IMPORTANT DATES

The SAC Mini Conference is being held at the Osceola County School for the Arts on October 11, 2021, 5:00 pm - 8:00pm.
