CADET CHAIN OF COMMAND

The Chain of Command is used in all communications between command levels. It aids in solving problems, defining responsibilities, and keeping unity of command. In the flight, your Flight Sergeant is the link between the enlisted and officer ranks. He/she can answer most questions regarding uniform wear, customs and courtesies, or drill. Any problem that the Flight Sergeant cannot solve is taken to the Flight Commander, and then to the Squadron Commander. Any problem that can't be solved by the Squadron Commander will be taken to the Group commander.

When using the Chain of Command, try to solve any problem at the lowest possible level. Only proceed to the next level when it is apparent that the problem cannot be solved at that level.

If you are not satisfied with the results received at a certain level, you may go to the next higher level, but you must inform the person you are going above.

Dear AFJROTC Cadet:

Welcome to Air Force Junior ROTC. You have elected to participate in a program that offers special opportunities in Education, Leadership, Social Activities, and Community Service. We feel that the program is well equipped to provide you the opportunity to profit from your participation. As a cadet, you will be required to maintain certain behavior and grooming standards AT ALL TIMES (in and out of your scheduled AFJROTC class period) and to wear the Air Force uniform each week as designated by the schedule. These standards are in support of the leadership and personal development objectives of ROTC and, if taken in the spirit in which they are intended, will provide the foundation for a pleasant and profitable educational experience. As a member of the Cadet Corps, you can travel to military bases for field trips, participate in parades in the local area, perform in drill team and color guard ceremonies and competitions, and participate in community service projects. Additionally, you can participate in social activities, such as the Military Ball, Awards Ceremony, and field day/picnics and, as you progress in experience and ability, become leaders in planning and executing the activities of the corps.

The program provides facilities and instructors dedicated to helping you get the most out of it. For your part, you will be expected to get involved. Your enthusiasm and interest are the heart of the program. The more you put into the program, the more you will enjoy it and the more you will get out of it.

We are looking forward to having you in the program. Please ensure your parents review this guide, so that they will understand the program and assist you in meeting its objectives. Also, please ensure that attachments 2 and 3 have been reviewed and signed by you and your parents/guardian. Good luck!

JIMMY R. SOLES, Lt Col, USAF (Ret)
Senior Aerospace Science Instructor

INTRODUCTION

This guide contains basic information concerning the academic, behavior, and grooming standards that each cadet is expected to know. It provides information on the course and how the Cadet Corps is organized. It also outlines the policies under which the corps, each flight, and each individual is expected to operate. This guide consists of attachments that must be turned in on the date set by the SASI/ASI.

This guide includes basic knowledge that each cadet should know, therefore, every effort should be made to learn to use this guide and to become familiar with as much of the information as possible. The Table of Contents is the key to finding the information that you want. This guide will be used in the development of a General Cadet Knowledge Test that will be used for cadet advancement.

CHAPTER 1

Mission/Scope of the AFJROTC Program

1.1. MISSION. The mission of AFJROTC is to “Develop citizens of character dedicated to serving their nation and community.”

1.2. GOALS. The goal of the program is to instill in high school students the values of citizenship, service to the United States, personal responsibility, and a sense of accomplishment.

1.3. PROGRAM. The AFJROTC program is divided into three parts. One part consists of academic instruction in aerospace education, which covers subjects pertaining to the aerospace age. This accounts for 40% of the program. The second part consists of leadership education and corps training activities that account for 40% of the program. The last part is physical training (PT) which covers physical training activities and wellness education that accounts for 20% of the program. We are not “recruiters” and do not try to “sign you up” for any military branch of the service. There is no military obligation when you enroll in AFJROTC.

1.4. COURSE LEVELS. The Aerospace Science Program is a voluntary 4-year course. It is an elective course, but completion of 2 full years of ROTC grants 1 health credit, 1 PE credit, and 1 performing arts credit necessary to graduate. Upon completion of 2 to 4 years of AFJROTC, there are several benefits to any cadet who may be interested in military service or college ROTC. These are described in Chapter 11. A brief summary of the coverage of each course level is listed below. To enroll in AS400, a cadet must have the Senior Aerospace Science Instructor’s (SASI) and the Aerospace Science Instructor’s (ASI) approval.

1.4.1. Aerospace Science 100. This course is an introduction to the history of man’s struggle to fly. The course will also include the AFJROTC mission and organization, customs and courtesies, and the meaning and purpose of standards, discipline, and conduct.

1.4.2. Aerospace Science 200. This course provides an introduction to the atmosphere and weather elements, the effects of flight on the human body, and basic aeronautics and navigation or Global and Cultural Studies, which provides an introduction to various regions of the world. Special attention is given to understanding why the elements of effective communication skills are important to the dynamics of individual and group behavior, and a key to effective leadership.

1.4.3. Aerospace Science 300. This course examines our Solar System, the latest advances in space technology, and continuing challenges of space and manned flight. Special attention is given to understanding why obtaining a degree or skill after high school is important to having a civilian or military career.

1.4.4. Aerospace Science 400. The cadets put the theories of previous leadership courses into practice by getting hands-on experience in organizing, directing, controlling, and coordinating the Cadet Corps.

1.5. Cadet Leadership Course (CLC). This program is a week of intensive training, in which the cadets learn and practice the basic concepts of leadership and responsibility. It is intended to train and pick out the potential future leaders of the corps. Cadets are selected for attendance based on proven discipline and acceptance of responsibility. This course or selected elements of it is offered only if base support is available.

1.6. TEXTBOOKS. The textbooks used in the AFJROTC program are furnished to cadets without charge. All textbooks and leadership manuals are controlled items and must be safeguarded and accounted for. They will be issued, as necessary, to cadets and must be returned at the end of the term or when the cadet drops the course. Cadets who damage or lose a textbook will be required to reimburse the Air Force for that book.

1.7. CLASS SCHEDULES. Cadets attend classes five days a week. Classes are divided between academic instruction and leadership education. Cadets are typically required to wear their uniform on Wednesday of each week. Each AFJROTC class period is designated as a “Flight” with its own military organization. Each class period is to be named after what the flight commander and the instructor agrees upon. The number of flights may vary based on the number of cadets per class period. Projected number of flights is 9, if period is bigger, flight will split into two sister flights. The Cadet Group Commander has a staff to assist him/her in running the corps. It should be emphasized that the Cadet Corps is run by and for the cadets under the guidance of the instructors. The Cadet Corps and the AFJROTC program will be what you and your fellow cadets make of it!

1.8. GRADING. Each cadet receives three grades in AFJROTC, one for academic instruction, one for leadership education and one for physical training. In determining the overall grade for each grading period, the academic grade is weighted 40%, the leadership education grade is weighted 40% and the physical training grade is weighted 20%.

1.8.1. Academic Grades. Academic grades are determined by tests/quizzes, written assignments, oral presentations, class/group participation, workbook exercises, and individual classroom conduct/work.

1.8.2. Leadership Education Grades. Leadership education grades are determined by uniform wear/inspections, grooming standards, drill/ceremony, leadership class exercises, and individual classroom conduct.

1.8.2.1. Three (3) failures to wear the uniform in a 9-week grading period will result in an overall grade of “F” in AFJROTC for that grading period, however, the cadet has an opportunity to make up the uniform wear of up to ten school days from the moment the cadet failed to wear the uniform.

1.8.2.2. Cadets will be deducted points for each uniform discrepancy noted during uniform inspections and ten or more points if it is a repeat discrepancy from the previous uniform inspection. These deductions of points are called demerits.

1.8.2.3. A Uniform violation repeating five (5) times will result in a failing leadership grade for inspection on that day. Three (3) documented failures to meet the required cadet grooming standards in a 9-week grading period will result in an overall grade of “F” in AFJROTC for that grading period. Severe uniform violations (as determined by the SASI/ASI), to include severe grooming violations, may result in cadets having to change out of uniform or be sent home.

1.8.2.4. Drill grade will be based upon wearing proper shoes (close-toed, form fitting ie....no Crocs, sandals, slides etc....) for drill practice (50%) and performance/execution/attitude (50%).

1.8.3. Physical Training Grades. Physical training grades are determined by proper uniform wear (50%) and participation/effort/attitude (50%) in weekly physical training which is conducted on Friday of each week unless otherwise notified by instructors.

1.9. CADET DAILY BRIEFING. Whoever the flight commander designates will be required to provide the group activities "Group Report" to the class each school day so the flight will be aware of current information. All cadets are responsible for all information briefed which includes upcoming activities and academics.

1.10. CADET Office. The hub and center of activity in the corps is the Cadet Office (C/O). The planning and operation of the unit is conducted here by the Cadet Corps Commander and his/her staff. This office should only be used for conducting and performing official cadet business. After the official staff business, the cadet office may serve as the cadet lounge when not in use by the cadet staff. Use of the lounge is restricted to leadership only; no one from outside JROTC will be permitted in the lounge under any circumstances. Adherence to certain rules and policies must be maintained at all times or privileges will be revoked.

1.11. CONTRACT. The Celebration High School Cadet Contract is reproduced as Attachment 3 to this Cadet Guide. Each cadet and parent/guardian will acknowledge this contract.

1.12 ACTIVITY FEE. Each cadet is expected to pay a $30.00 non-refundable activity fee. These funds will go to support the annual Fall Family Picnic/Field Day, flight tee shirts that are used for our annual Spring Field Day, awards for our Annual Spring Field Day and miscellaneous items for our Annual Awards Ceremony. This is not a charge for the Air Force uniform nor physical training uniform, they are provided at no cost.

- Leave the classroom without the instructor's permission.
- Write on the chalkboard without the instructor's permission.
- Talk when the instructor is teaching or when someone else has the floor.
- Be late or consequences will follow.

3.3. HAZING. Hazing is any conduct where cadets cause another cadet/student to suffer or be exposed to any activity which is cruel, abusive, humiliating, oppressive, demeaning, or harmful. Soliciting or coercing another into any such activity is also considered hazing, be it verbal or psychological in nature. Any type of maltreatment or cruelty toward cadets/students or between cadets/students is strictly forbidden.

3.4. CLASSROOM PROCEDURES.

3.4.1. Cadets will enter the classroom and stand behind their seats at parade rest.

3.4.2. The only items allowed at your seat will be a textbook, notebook, pen or pencil, and any other items approved by the instructor for that lesson. All other items (book bags, coats not being worn, etc.) will be placed in the front of the classroom along with cell phones in bags.

3.4.3. When the tardy bell rings, the class leader (Flight Commander or Flight Sergeant) will call the class to "Attention."

3.4.4. The class leader will lead the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag and then review the Chain of Command.

3.4.5. The class leader will then order the class to: "At ease. Take your seats."

3.4.6. The flight sergeant will then take roll utilizing the "attendance sheets" and give the completed sheets to one of the instructors.

3.4.7. Tardy cadets will quietly enter the classroom and assume the position of "Parade Rest" near the door until the flight commander addresses them and gives them options including getting a tardy slip. After, the tardy cadet will take the position of "Attention," salute, and say: "Sir/Ma'am, Cadet (your name) requests permission to join the class."

3.4.8. Once instruction has begun, talking is prohibited except when permission is requested by the cadet and granted by the instructor.

3.4.9. After the bell rings at the end of the class period, with the instructor's permission the class leader will call the cadets to "Attention." The class leader will then dismiss the class. No one will leave the classroom unless dismissed by the class leader.

3.5. MILITARY CONDUCT. The practice of saying "Yes Sir" and "No Sir" to the SASI and ASI and to cadet officers that outrank you may seem difficult at first, but this long-established military courtesy will soon become an expected and comfortable habit.

3.6. DISENROLLMENT. Cadets will be disenrolled from AFJROTC as recommended by the SASI and approved by the Principal (See Attachment 1). A cadet may be disenrolled for failure to maintain acceptable standards, such as haircut, grooming, or uniform violations; inaptitude or indifference to training; disciplinary reasons; failure to remain enrolled in school; or any other reason deemed appropriate by the Principal and the SASI.

CHAPTER 4

Cadet Uniform Wear

4.1. GENERAL. The uniform worn by the AFJROTC cadet is the standard Air Force uniform, with the exception of the distinctive insignia, and the AFJROTC shoulder patch. Cadets wearing the Air Force uniform must wear it with dignity and respect. Personal behavior while in uniform must be such that it will not bring discredit on the uniform, the AFJROTC program, or Celebration High School. The Celebration High School AFJROTC Uniform Wear policy is outlined in Attachment 2. Each cadet will acknowledge this policy.

4.2 UNIFORM ISSUE. Uniforms will be issued upon receipt of the parent signed Contract (Attachment 3), parent signed Uniform Wear Policy statement (Attachment 2), and compliance with grooming standards. When you are issued your uniform and other items of equipment, you will be required to sign the Uniform Hand Receipt. Each item then becomes your responsibility. If you lose any part of it, willfully or negligently destroy any part of it, you will be required to pay for that item. The cost of each item will be the cost of each item in effect when your account is scheduled to be cleared. Clothing items that have become worn or damaged should be turned in. If the wear or damage has been through normal use, the items will be replaced without charge. You will be issued a clean uniform. Cadets are required to turn their uniform in at the end of the school year dry cleaned.

4.3. RULES CONCERNING THE UNIFORM.

4.3.1. Cadets are expected to wear the uniform all day on Wednesday of each week unless notified otherwise by the SASI/ASI. Each school day missed will result in a 10-point grade deduction; cadets will only have ten school days to make up uniform wear requirements.

4.3.2. The uniform must be kept clean and pressed with buttons buttoned and shoes shined.

4.3.3. Place and wear insignia properly and wear only authorized insignia. Additional items such as cords and berets identify members of a cocurricular activity.

4.3.4. Hitchhiking, engaging in sports activities, and participation in anti-authority demonstrations while in uniform are prohibited.

4.3.5. Each cadet must maintain a straight line down the front of the uniform. This is called the “gig line.” The leading edge of the shirt and the right edge of the belt buckle for males should be in a straight line with the leading edge of the trouser fly. Females will use the left edge of the belt buckle for the straight line.

4.3.6. All loose strings and frayed seams on the uniform should be trimmed off.

4.3.7. The SASI/ASI will advise each class on Monday of any special uniform requirement for Wednesday of each week

4.3.8. During warmer weather, when the temperature in the classroom makes it uncomfortable to wear the service coat, it may be removed, folded neatly shoulder to shoulder and laid over the back of the chair. It will not be draped over the back of the chair as the sleeves and bottom of the coat will be on the floor. If the coat is not removed, it must be kept buttoned. The coat will always be properly buttoned when worn. When the coat is worn, shirt collars will be kept buttoned and the tie will be kept in place at all times.

4.3.9. Details and example pictures of blues, ABUs, and PT gear wear are list in Attachment 5 (derived from the AFJROTC Chapter 7, Uniform and Award, Operational Supplement).

4.4. MALE UNIFORM REQUIREMENTS.

4.4.1. Male cadets are prohibited from wearing piercings, earrings or cosmetic products (makeup).

4.4.2. The “V-neck” tee shirt, worn under the short sleeve, light blue shirt by males, must be plain, white, and clean.

4.4.3. Male cadets will wear a plain colored white shirt with a Air Force issued dress tie with the service coat (semi-formal dress) on formal occasions (Military Ball).

4.4.4. The bottom of the pants will touch the shoes with a slight break in the crease.

4.8. FEMALE UNIFORM REQUIREMENTS.

4.8.1. Skirt length will be in keeping with the requirement of kneecap rule. In no case will the skirts be shorter than the top of the kneecap or longer than the bottom of the kneecap. Wearing hosiery with the skirt is optional.

4.8.2. Low-quarter shoes or commercial plain black closed toe and heel (heels no higher than 1”) will be worn with the uniform (no flats). Nylon type stockings (Black or individual’s skin tone) may be worn with the skirt. Black issue socks or hose must be worn with the pants.

4.8.3. Women may wear small conservative diamond, gold, white pearl, or silver spherical earrings. Earrings will fit tightly against the ear, will not extend below the earlobe, and only one earring per ear. Other ornaments are prohibited (must wear earrings in the lower ear lobe).

4.8.4. The bottom of the pants will touch the shoes with a slight break in the crease.

4.9. ADDITIONAL AUTHORIZED/UNAUTHORIZED ITEMS.

4.6.1. The Air Force all-weather blue jacket is authorized for wear as an optional item. While wearing this jacket, it must be zipped at least half way or all the way. Permission is granted to remove the jacket while in the classroom.

4.6.2. The Air Force flight jacket is not authorized for wear with the uniform.

4.6.3. Outer garb that does not meet Air Force standards will not be worn. No civilian clothing will be worn with the uniform. Cadets may wear the issued Air Force Jacket with civilian clothes.

4.6.4. Cadets may wear wristwatches and rings. No more than three rings are permitted. One bracelet, not wider than one inch, is permitted and must be gold or silver. If a watch is worn, it must be black, gold, or silver. Sunglasses may be worn, but they must be black, conservative and not mirrored.

4.6.5. Pens, pencils, wallets, key chains, checkbooks, chains, pins, combs, and so forth, may not be exposed when in uniform.

4.6.6. Book bags are authorized to be carried in the left hand or over the left shoulder. When riding a bike, use both shoulder straps.

4.6.7. Sunglasses will be conservative with no faddish styles or mirrored lenses. Sunglasses will not be worn in formation.

4.6.8. Necklaces must be concealed under the collar/undershirt with a tie/tab.

4.7. DISTINCTIVE UNIFORM ITEMS. Uniform distinctive items will be issued on an individual basis through Supply. Each cadet will sign a receipt for the issued item. Any other cadet requiring the issuance of a distinctive item will be on a "one time basis" and it will be returned to Supply after the activity is over. Whenever membership in the Color Guard, Drill Team, Kitty Hawk Air Society, or Group Staff is terminated, all distinctive items of wear will be turned into Supply immediately.

4.7.1. Cords. Cords are a distinctive addition to the uniform worn by AFJROTC cadets to denote participation in a co-curricular activity or position. One cord will be worn over the left shoulder of the light blue shirt/blouse or service coat. Cadets will not wear cords unless they are active participants of the Color Guard, Drill Team, and Kitty Hawk Air Society, Commandos or a member of the Group Staff.

4.7.2. Wear of Cords. Cords are authorized to be worn by cadets anytime they wear the Air Force uniform and may be worn anytime they participate in scheduled cocurricular activities.

4.7.3. UNIFORM CARE/CLEANING. The blue shirts/blouses, blue service coat, flight cap, tie, pants, skirt, blue light weight jacket, and all berets must be dry cleaned. A professional should accomplish major alterations. ABUs are machine washable.

4.8 PHYSICAL TRAINING (PT) UNIFORM. The PT uniform will be worn on Fridays during PT and for scheduled AFJROTC events such as field day or as directed by the SASI/ASI. PT and flight shirts are allowed to be worn during school hours on Fridays. PT shorts and sweatpants are not allowed to be worn during class time as they do not meet the school dress code policy requirements.

4.9. TURN-IN REQUIREMENTS.

4.9.1. At the end of each term, it is the responsibility of each cadet to return all issued uniforms and accessories to Supply and clear all accounts. Uniform must be dry cleaned and in plastic covering. Socks, V-neck t-shirts, and PT uniforms are not required to be returned.

4.9.2. Missing items will be paid for prior to receiving a final grade.

4.10. ENFORCEMENT. Cadets of higher grade/rank/position have the responsibility and authority over other cadets in the enforcement of prescribed uniform wear and they are obligated to make "on the spot" corrections. Cadets correcting others will do so privately and as discretely as possible. Cadets receiving corrections should accept the corrections in the proper spirit. Cadets continually failing to meet the uniform standards will have the uniform recalled and will receive an "F," thus failing the course. If the uniform or grooming standard violation is severe, as determined by the SASI/ASI, the cadet will either change clothes or be sent home.

Nail polish must be in good taste, may not be chipped, and not contain any ornamentation. Nails may not extend beyond ¼" past the fingertip.

5.4.6 Cosmetics. Female Cadets may wear cosmetics; however, if worn, they will be conservative (moderate, being within reasonable limits; not excessive or extreme) and in good taste.

5.5. FAILURE TO MAINTAIN GROOMING STANDARDS. Cadets continually failing to meet the grooming standards will have the uniform recalled and will receive an "F", thus failing the course.

CHAPTER 6

Cadet Promotion System

6.1. GENERAL. Promotion provides a constant challenge to an individual regardless of endeavor. This challenge is a manner of recognition for meeting the prerequisites levied for promotion. The insignia of rank is evidence of the ability and willingness to accept responsibility, demonstrate leadership, and experience growth potential. Promotion is based on academic and leadership grades, organizational leadership, curricular activity, responsibility, service, and organizational support.

6.2. CADET POSITION AND ROTATION. The SASI/ASI selects the Cadet Corps Commander, subordinate commanders, and all staff members. Recommendations from the outgoing staff are encouraged and will be given consideration. In the case of promoting, positions are thought out ensuring the cadets who do exemplify the qualities of a leader are allowed the opportunity to fill in or be assigned a leadership position within the Cadet Corps. More frequent changes may be made if necessary. Fourth- or third-year cadets will normally fill all cadet officer positions unless insufficient fourth- or third-year cadets are assigned. Normally, fourth- or third-year cadets will outrank second- and first-year cadets.

6.2.1. To be eligible for an appointment to a group position, a cadet must demonstrate an exceptional attitude, exemplary military bearing, and effective leadership potential to assume positions of higher responsibility.

6.2.2. The outgoing Cadet Group Commander will be a mentor to the new Cadet Group Commander.

6.3. PROMOTION. The following policies governing appointments and promotions apply to all cadets.

6.3.1. Cadets promoted to cadet officer status will be required to maintain a 3.0 grade point average in Aerospace Science and a 2.5 grade point average in other school academic subjects. Should a cadet officer fall below the established standards, he/she will be placed on probation until the next grading period. If a cadet does not improve the grade to the established standard, the cadet may be relieved from the officer position.

6.3.2. To be promoted within the enlisted ranks, the cadet should maintain a 2.0 grade point average or higher in all courses. Cadets will not normally be promoted if they have discipline referrals, OSS, over three tardies', or excessive absences. Only the SASI may authorize deviations from these requirements.

6.3.3. Promotion action will be announced by Special Orders published by the Administration Officer with the SASI's approval. The Administrative Officer will record promotions on individual personnel records.

6.3.4. Promotions are not automatic, they are earned in accordance with the promotion table below.

6.4. DEMOTION. Demotion may be made for failure to maintain a passing grade in JROTC, failure to maintain the standards expected of a cadet, failure to perform duties listed for the job description, failure to perform additional duties as required, and misconduct.

CHAPTER 7

Military Customs and Courtesies

7.1. GENERAL. You will be taught the proper manner of saluting and the rules that govern its use among the military services.

7.2. SALUTING. The salute is a courteous exchange of greeting between members of a profession. The salute between military personnel is one of the oldest military traditions. In many countries of the world as in the United States, it is a symbol of respect.

7.3. SALUTING PROCEDURES. The following apply while in uniform unless otherwise noted.

7.3.1. A salute is never given or returned while running. The cadet will come to quick time (a walk) and render the salute when approximately three paces from the officer.

7.3.2. A cadet of a lesser grade will initiate the salute and hold it until it is returned or acknowledged by the person of higher grade.

7.3.3. The salute is rendered indoors only when cadets are in formation, participating in ceremonies, reporting to cadet officers, or reporting to the SASI/ASI.

7.3.5. When a cadet is late for a formation in or out of uniform, he/she will approach the person in charge (when the formation is at halt), salute, and request permission to fall-in.

7.3.8. In attending an activity wherein, the National Anthem is being played, the uniformed cadet will render the salute and hold it until the last strains of music are heard. If the cadet is in civilian clothes, the cadet will assume the position of "Attention" and place his/her right hand with headgear, if worn, over the heart.

7.4. REPORTING IN. When reporting in, the cadet will come to "Attention," salute, and say: "Sir/Ma'am, Cadet (Last Name) reports as ordered/directed," or other appropriate comment. When reporting late to class, the cadet will come to "Attention," salute, and say: "Sir/Ma'am Cadet (Last Name) requests permission to join the flight/class." The cadet holds the salute until it is returned by the cadet officer/SASI/ASI.

7.5. PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE. When the Pledge of Allegiance is rendered, each cadet (whether in uniform or not) will stand at "Attention" and deliver the Pledge properly. If in uniform, stand at "Attention." If in civilian clothes, stand at "Attention" and place your right hand over your heart while reciting the Pledge.

7.6. VIOLATIONS. Senior cadets will correct saluting violations on the spot, but in a helpful manner. A cadet should not be placed in a degrading or embarrassing situation by public reprimand. All cadets are expected to accept these corrections without resentment and correct the error immediately. Cases of disrespect, insulence, or insubordination should be reported to the SASI/ASI.

CHAPTER 8

AFJROTC Co-Curricular Activities

9.1. GENERAL. In addition to the regular curriculum, there are special activities that will assist the cadet in learning good citizenship and also to experience the esprit de corps in AFJROTC. Many of these activities enable cadets to earn extra credit towards AFJROTC awards, while other activities will give cadets an opportunity for fellowship with other cadets.

9.2. CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES LEADERSHIP. Most of the following activities are planned, managed, and organized by and for the cadets. Cadet leadership is essential to the success of these activities. It is through this process that cadets have the opportunity to practice what they have learned about the principles of leadership and management as taught to them in the leadership/management section of the Aerospace Science course. The SASI or ASI will provide sponsorship and guidance, but cadets must plan, execute, and manage the activities.

9.2.1. Drill Team. All cadets are eligible to try out for the Unarmed Drill Teams. The Drill Teams practice after school and specialize in precision drill as well as participation in local parades, ceremonies, and competitions. Members of the Drill Team are called upon to perform special duties where cadets who excel in personal appearance and self-discipline are required. Members are eligible to wear the appropriate shoulder cord while an active member of the Drill Team and be awarded the AFJROTC Drill Team Ribbon near the end of the term. ## CHAPTER 10

Cadet AFJROTC Program Opportunities

10.1. GENERAL: The AFJROTC Aerospace Science Program provides more incentives than are normally available under most high school programs. Many of these incentives are within the grasp of cadets who really apply themselves. Cadets do not incur any service obligation by participating in the AFJROTC program.

10.2. CERTIFICATES: In addition to studying Aerospace Science subjects and developing discipline, patriotism, esprit de corps, and leadership potential, there are many opportunities to earn worthwhile certificates.

10.2.2 AF Form 1256, Certificate of Training: This certificate is awarded to each cadet who completes 2 academic program years of AFJROTC. This certificate can result in a promotion to E-2 after basic military training. Two years of JROTC can result in a waiver of one academic semester under the college senior ROTC program.

10.2.3. AFOATS Form 310, AFJROTC Certificate of Completion: This certificate is awarded to each cadet who completes 3 and/or 4 academic program years of AFJROTC. A cadet with this certificate can be promoted to E-3 (E-2 for the Marines) after basic military training. Three or four years of JROTC can result in a waiver of one year of AFROTC college credit.

10.3. SCHOLARSHIPS: Cadets who complete at least two years of the AFJROTC program and are active members their senior year receive increased consideration when applying for AFROTC and AFJROTC college scholarships. Each year, cadets can apply on-line (www.afrotc.com) for AFJROTC and AFROTC scholarships. The AFJROTC scholarship process is highly competitive and selective. Those cadets not selected for an AFJROTC scholarship will have their scholarship package automatically forwarded to the AFROTC Scholarship Board. All other qualifying cadets can submit applications through the AFROTC Regular College Scholarship Program for consideration.

10.4. AIR FORCE ACADEMY (AFA) NOMINATIONS: Cadets interested in academy nominations can obtain Pre-Candidate Questionnaires from the desired Service Academy and return the completed application to that desired Service Academy. This application process is designed solely for cadets who are academically, physically, and psychologically competitive for the Academies. Selection boards at the Academies will determine which cadets will be competitive for appointment.

10.5 FLIGHT SCHOOL: Cadets with superior grades, high GPAs, and great promise in the JROTC program can apply for a summer flight school where they can get a pilot's license and a scholarship. This is usually out of state and takes up the whole summer, it is only for committed cadets and cadets.

10.6 OTHER Opportunities: Qualifying cadets can earn letters of recommendations for other scholarships, recommendations for employment, and development of leadership potential and maturity through participation in drill and ceremonies and military leadership.

CADET CONTRACT

Application and agreement for the Air Force Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps (AFJROTC)

Forward

AFJROTC is a full credit science/fine art/elective course offered at Celebration High School. This is a unique course of instruction because the US Air Force has established certain requirements, which must be met before academic credit is given. This agreement, like an education contract, serves to communicate general guidelines concerning these requirements to each cadet and encourages a commitment to develop self-discipline and responsibility for personal actions.

The mission of the AFJROTC program at Celebration High School is: (1) To educate and train high school cadets in citizenship; (2) To promote community service; (3) To instill responsibility, character, and self-discipline; and (4) To provide instruction in air and space fundamentals.

NOTE: It must be understood that participation in AFJROTC does not commit or obligate any student to military service. It does not guarantee special consideration if a student chooses to enter any of the military services. However, a cadet who successfully completes 2 or more years of the AFJROTC program may: (1) Qualify for advanced rank upon enlistment, (2) Compete more favorably for 4-year college ROTC scholarships, or (3) Increase the chances for an appointment to one of the service academies.

Application

I, _____, hereby apply for enrollment in Air Force Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFJROTC), FL-20053, at Celebration High School.

Agreement

1. Upon acceptance of this application and the fulfillment of the conditions on the part of the cadet, the Aerospace Science Instructors agree to:

- a. Provide textbook materials.
- b. Issue a regulation Air Force uniform to each cadet on a loan basis from the authorized tariff sizes available from the Air Force.
- c. Provide instruction in support of the above stated purpose of AFJROTC and its program objectives.

Specially, a cadet should develop:

- (1) An appreciation of the basic elements and requirements for national security.
  - (2) Respect for and understanding of the need for constituted authority in a democratic society.
  - (3) Patriotism and an understanding of their personal obligation to contribute to national security.
  - (4) Habits of orderliness and precision.
  - (5) A high degree of personal honor, self-reliance, and leadership.
  - (6) Basic military skills.
  - (7) Broad-based knowledge of the aerospace age and fundamental aerospace doctrine.
  - (8) An interest in completing high school and pursuing higher educational goals or skills.
  - (9) A knowledge of and appreciation for the traditions of the Air Force.
  - (10) An understanding of the Air Force and military as a possible career path.
- d. Encourage academic achievement and career planning. Provide guidance regarding the continuing educational opportunities available through the service academies and college ROTC scholarship programs.

2. In order to maintain the high standards of courtesy, personal conduct, and appearance required by the Air Force and the Osceola County School District, as a cadet, I understand and agree to:

- a. Take proper care of the textbook materials provided by the Air Force and return them when requested.
- b. Wear the regulation Air Force uniform only on those occasions prescribed by the Aerospace Science Instructors.

Refusal to wear the uniform or improper use of the uniform will result in cadet removal from AFJROTC. (Removal from the program will result in an "F" for the course.)

c. Maintain the uniform in a clean, proper fitted and required manner and to turn in the complete uniform upon demand. Cadets are responsible for the cost of routine cleaning, loss, or theft of the uniform and uniform items. Upon uniform turn in, the uniform must be professionally dry cleaned or the cadet must provide $20 for cleaning cost (per set). Professional dry-cleaning receipt is due at uniform return.

d. Meet the personal grooming standards (especially haircuts) established by the Air Force.

e. Meet the standards of attitude, behavior, and courtesy established and taught by the instructors. (Cadets who are suspended from school for their behavior risk losing their cadet rank, position, or may be withdrawn from the AFJROTC program.)

f. Maintain an acceptable standard of academic achievement. Be active in the classroom work and, if possible, the co-curricular activities of AFJROTC.

g. Strive to meet the objectives of the AFJROTC program as listed in paragraph 1.c. above.

h. Respond positively to other cadets who have been appointed to leadership positions in the Cadet Corps.

Cadets are likewise expected to conduct themselves properly when placed in a position of leadership.

i. Strive to develop self-discipline and responsibility for personal actions.

Parental Approval

I hereby give permission for _____ to enroll in the AFJROTC program and will encourage his/her participation. I understand that there is no commitment for military service because of participation in AFJROTC. I understand and will help to maintain the high standards expected of a cadet in the AFJROTC program at Celebration High School.

I understand that the uniform must be professionally dry cleaned upon turn in or $20 must be provided for cleaning cost (per uniform set). I will also return the complete uniform when required.

Each cadet is expected to pay a $30.00 non-refundable activity fee that is due within the first 30-days of school. These funds will go to support the annual Fall Family Picnic/Field Day, flight t-shirts that are used for motivational alternate PT gear and our annual Spring Field Day, awards for our Annual Spring Field Day and miscellaneous items for our Annual Awards Ceremony. This is not a charge for the Air Force uniform or physical training gear, they are provided at no cost. Cadets enrolled in virtual learning are not required to pay the activity fee and will not be issued any uniforms or physical training gear.

Leadership contract

Congratulations, you have been selected for a position of leadership (Flight Sergeant through Group Commander) in the 2022-2023 school year. If you choose to accept the position, you will be required to exhibit exceptional qualities above those required of the average cadet. You have been chosen to be an example to younger cadets and due to this, the following standards will be enforced.

1. You will wear the uniform every week, unless instructed otherwise by the SASI or ASI. Missing more than two uniform wears without a valid excuse is grounds for dismissal from your position.
2. You will turn in all assignments on time; failure to do so will result in dismissal.
3. You will maintain an "A" in JROTC and an overall "C" average in all classes. If below you may be removed from your position.
4. You will participate in every PT unless physically unable. For any PT you assign your flight, you will participate with your flight. You must be able to do, correctly, what you have told your flight to do.
5. You will attend every staff meeting. If you are absent from three meetings without notifying the proper leadership you will be dismissed from the position.
6. Squadron commanders and up are required to visit each of their flights at least three times per quarter and discuss the state of the flight with the Flight Commander. It is important for the cadets to know who you are. Failure to comply with this is grounds for dismissal.

Failure to meet/maintain standards may result in dismissal from a leadership position. The Cadet Group Commander will make recommendations to the SASI/ASI for final determination in all cases for removal of a cadet from a leadership position.

I _____ hereby accept the position of _____. I understand the requirements and responsibilities therein.

I agree to meet these standards or allow myself to receive the necessary consequences.
